A D
I had a friend was a big baseball player
A D
back in high school
A D
He could throw that speedball by you
A D
Make you look like a fool boy
E
Saw him the other night at this roadside bar
D
I was walking in, he was walking out
E
We went back inside sat down had a few drinks
D E
but all he kept talking about was
A D
Glory days well they'll pass you by
A D
Glory days in the wink of a young girl's eye
A E
Glory days, glory days

A D
Well there's a girl that lives up the block
A D
back in school she could turn all the boy's heads
A D
Sometimes on a Friday I'll stop by
A D
and have a few drinks after she put her kids to bed
E
Her and her husband Bobby well they split up
D
I guess it's two years gone by now
E
We just sit around talking about the old times,
D
she says when she feels like crying
she starts laughing thinking about
A D
Glory days well they'll pass you by
A D
Glory days in the wink of a young girl's eye
A E
Glory days, glory days

A
My old man worked 20 years on the line
and they let him go
Now everywhere he goes out looking for work
they just tell him that he's too old
I was 9 nine years old and he was working at the Metuchen Ford plant assembly line
Now he just sits on a stool down at the Legion hall
but I can tell what's on his mind
Glory Days - Bruce Springsteen

Now I think I'm going down to the well tonight and I'm going to drink till I get my fill
And I hope when I get old I don't sit around thinking about it but I probably will Yeah, just sitting back trying to recapture
a little of the glory of, well time slips away
and leaves you with nothing mister but boring stories of glory days

A                D
Glory days well they'll pass you by
A                     D
Glory days in the wink of a young girl's eye
A           E
Glory days, glory days

A                D
Glory days well they'll pass you by
