*Note for below – hold the D chord from above - technically there is a strange change that is added here that isn't very strummer friendly. You can hear me in the video – I said "nah" quietly 2 times to keep you up with the change. You then go into the part below. If you are extremely familiar with this song <you should be, but some might not know this part well> then you can slide right through this.)

```
(D)     C           G             D
Na na,  na na na nah, na-na na na, hey Jude! (repeat this over and over – ending on D)
```
