

Loving Cup – The Rolling Stones

Strumming Pattern: D, D, DU, DDD, DU (basically repeated over and over)

Chords Used:

D: xx0232
C: x32010
G: 320033 (and/or 355433)
F: 133211
Em: 022000
Bb: x1333x

Notes: I made this one a bit easier, because there's a REALLY strange pause in the original song, and I just felt this would work as fine. If you want to be really technical you'll want to count that pause a bit longer, but to me, this is the "easy" way of playing this song. There isn't much added in this song, and I've actually seen Jagger/Jack White play this one with just acoustic guitars, so I thought this version would suffice. Also, it will help TREMENDOUSLY to think of the words "give me a little drink" as "gimmelittle drink" instead. You'll want to hit the chords precisely where shown below during the chorus.
