Ticket To Ride – The Beatles
Chords Used:

Bm: x24432
E: 022100
F#m: 244222
D: xx0232
G: 320033
D7:   xx0212
E7:   020100 (this is optional)

Strumming Pattern: Most of this is really just D, DD, DDD over and over, but during the D7 part ("Don't know why....") it's all eighth notes. Just straight strums there.

Notes: Here is the basic tab version of this, which is a bit tricky to play in a standard strumming format. However, once you practice this movement I think you'll get it with no problem. Here's the example of the entire verse theme in order. Once you get to the Bm – E it should be pretty understandable from there.

The above is the entire verse theme played over and over until you reach the Bm – E part. This is played as the intro too.
